

Society by laws

- The ISGH is formed from general assembly which represents all society members and governing board that is formed from nine elected members from the general assembly (president, vice president, secretary general, treasurer, society board officers).
- Election is held every three years for the governing board.
- Active Membership of the ISGH is granted to all Gastroenterologists & Hepatologist who obtain the Iraqi or Arabic board of gastroenterology and founding members of society.
- Associate membership of the ISGH is granted to all residents in the specialty of gastroenterology & Hepatology, other medical specialists who are interested in Gastroenterology & Hepatology and Gastroenterologists & Hepatologist who did not attain the Iraqi or Arabic board of gastroenterology.
- Honorary Membership of the ISGH is granted for all who participated in the development of Gastroenterology & Hepatology in Iraq or outside Iraq (physicians, corporations, establishments...etc.)